The Irish Riot Against Hoffman and Blair

The Irish People of New York, one of the most prominent of the Celtic American newspapers, and hitherto strongly Democratic, declares for Grant and Colfax. From a brilliant article, defending this change of front, we except the conclusive summary of the reasons why Irishmen should not vote the Democratic ticket.

As a very great many of us vote for this or that party for very slight reasons or for no reasons at all, I venture to furnish one or two reasons for not voting the Democratic ticket. If one or all of the arguments has weight with any undecided or unprejudiced Irishman the effort will be a salutary hit at the Irish vote. I forbear to offer any reasons adverse to the radicals, because there are enough and too many of our people at present opposed to them.

1. The Democratic party is allied to the Anglo-Confederate party in the South, which carried on the war for the destruction of the Union. Had England and the Confederates been successful, this republic would have been ruined, and with its disintegration the hopes of all succor for the Irish exile, and all aid for his cause would have been lost forever. The success of the secession would have been a great calamity for Ireland, and as such the Irish citizens of America resisted it, and in resisting it they resisted the policy and the manifest handiwork of England. Therefore it is unreasonable for them now to ally themselves with England and England's devoted friends, for this is what they would do if they connect themselves with the Southern "Democracy."

2. The Southern planters formed a real aristocracy, with peculiar and unjust political privileges just as flagrant as those of any European aristocracy. The war has leveled them down and leveled the negroes up. But the planter party are now trying under the pseudonym of Democrats, to recover their former aristocratic position and privileges. Now, aristocracy and true Democracy cannot coexist, therefore every genuine friend of American Democracy must resist the planters' policy.

3. Reverdy Johnson has taken occasion to assure the English in advance that whoever may be elected President he will be a friend to England. Doubtless it was Seward, the ninety-day prophet, who advised him to venture on this agreeable prediction, and impose on the John Bulls by a reckless disregard for veracity. If this statement were as true as it is false, we should be justified in voting for neither Seymour nor Grant. But we suspect that Johnson has a better right to know the opinions of the former than those of the latter, and therefore the declaration made at Sheffield should prejudice us against the Democratic candidate. We should be the most egregious fools in the world if we voted for a true friend of England.

4. The Democratic party are now obstructionist, conservatives, Tories, reactionists, while the Republicans are progressive, liberal and aggressive. It is with the party which moves forward, and that loves liberty for liberty's sake, that the Irish should advance for it is only from these that we can hope for any help.

5. The radicals passed the bill for the protection of naturalized Irishmen, as we asked them to do, and be it remembered that only one Democrat voted for the reprisal clause in the original bill, while seven Republican votes were given to sustain it.

6. We hold the Democratic party mainly responsible for the anti-Irish and pro-English policy of President Johnson. He has shown himself indifferent to the fate of our comrades and we should visit his sins upon his political supporters.

7. Partly through devotion to England, and partly in accordance with the old policy of the Southern aristocracy, the Democratic party are opposed to the annexation of Canada, and in favor of the absorption of Mexico. As Republicans anti-monarchists and English citizens of the United States the Fenians should oppose a party whose policy is exactly the reverse of that which favors their interests and wishes.

8. August Belmont, the Head Center of the New York Democracy and the Chief Engineer of the Tammany Hall Convention has been openly charged in the public press with swindling the Fenian Brotherhood and making himself an accomplice of England, in a most treacherous manner, in a purely commercial and confidential transaction. Are Irishmen made of such sorry stuff as to support a party which is guided by their meanest foe?

BRICK POMEROY'S OPINION OF THE NEW YORK WORLD.—Probably no one thing has operated so unfavorably to our success in the canvass as the existence and course of the bolting, treacherous, double faced and false faced sheet in this city which these leaders and committees have, by the certificates of character and urgent appeals for support which they have from time to time issued in its behalf, forced into extensive circulation among the Democratic masses and thereby given a power of mischief which is telling tremendously against us at every stage and in every movement of the campaign. This bastard concern, begotten of Puritanism and corruption and brought into pretended but false adhesion to the Democratic party for a price, at the same time that its controlling spirit declared that he loathed Democracy and that it would be only in the last extremity and under a supreme pecuniary necessity that he would even join it in appearance as he could never join it in heart, by its repudiation of the financial plank of the platform and open hostility to the positions so fully and earnestly accepted and advocated by our candidates, federal and State, as the leading and strongest issue of the canvass, has done an amount of harm to the cause which cannot now be estimated and will not be known until the great count shall be made, and may then be found (which God forbid) to have been fatal to our success.

From every quarter comes up the testimony that the course of this false, venal press is weakening and endangering to us to an extent which these leaders and committees will never awake from their deep sleep to discover until it will be too late to apply a remedy and the fatal work which seems to be its mission may be done. So ten thousands of deceived and betrayed Democrats—deceived and betrayed by these leaders and committees—are daily sending up their complaints against this organ of the bondholding aristocracy, demanding that its capacity for further deception and treason be taken away by a universal, emphatic and final repudiation of its claims to the character of an exponent of Democratic opinion and a representative of the Democratic party.

We write these words of warning under the call of our injured Democratic brethren in every part of the Union and in behalf of that great and holy cause in whose service we are laboring day and night, spending our best energies and to secure the success of which we would freely lay down our last dollar and even life itself. Let those concerned take heed. The peril is imminent—the necessity for prompt and decided action is most urgent.

FORMATION OF METALS.—It is morally certain that gold, silver, copper and other metals are now in process of formation or decomposition. Abandoned silver mines in Peru have been found rich in arborescent deposits of the metals on the walls of galleries unused for many years. A gold bearing region after being cleaned of the precious metal gives good results after the lapse only of a few years. So with copper. In the Siberian mines, not only the precious carbonate known as malachite, but the metal itself in a state of almost absolute purity, is deposited on the walls of shafts and floors and galleries run under the earth's surface. In some places it appears in masses and in others as tree like formations with trunk and branches similar to a delicate moss.

A young New Orleans quadroon, Miss Delannay, is the most promising pupil in the Paris Conservatoire. Her voice is also. "Nigger equality."

This evening it is currently reported that the first body of infantry [illegible] had [illegible] It is not ascertained. Staff officers have been dispatched to investigate the matter. When the rumor spread this A. M., large numbers of white men congregated on the levee in the lower part of the city and chartered three steam tugs to convey them to the scene of action but were prevented from leaving the city by order of Gen. Rousseau, as the number of troops sent were sufficient to restore order. The disturbed condition of affairs has deterred the internal revenue officials from entering the parishes to-day for the discharge of their duties. Prominent members of both parties had an interview with General Rousseau. He generally agreed to discountenance and prevent as far as possible any further political demonstrations. Rousseau intends removing all the troops in this vicinity into the city to prevent the recurrence of the scenes of last Saturday night. The Saturday demonstrated the utter helplessness of the [illegible]. No effort on his part appeared to have been made until the soldiers appeared on the ground on Saturday night. For two hours after the riot on Canal street, not a single policeman was to be seen, though numbers were congregated on St. Charles street, within four blocks of the scene of disturbance.

The General [illegible] astonishment at the impatience of that portion of the French press which considers that Spain is not getting to her work fast enough. He adds: Eight days are [illegible] to overthrow a dynasty 300 years old and to establish a new government. We shall not delay now to consolidate our position through a constituent assembly on the basis of our programme which you know. We shall then have succeeded in attaining the political idea contemporary in Spain, namely, a real constitutional monarchy founded upon the most extended and liberal basis compatible with that kind of government.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—Preparations for the grand torchlight procession this evening are rapidly progressing, and promises to be a magnificent affair. Many people living in the line which the procession [illegible], are making great preparations for a grand illumination and decoration of buildings. The city will be a perfect blaze. A large number of people came down from Sacramento this afternoon to participate.

A sad catastrophe occurred at the Brooklyn Hotel last Sunday night which resulted in the death of Mrs. Margaret Bowan and the finding of her husband, William B. Bowan, in the state of asphyxia, from which he has not yet recovered. This terrible accident was caused by the gas being turned on after the light was extinguished.

IMPORTANCE OF VACCINATION.—The Pacific Medical Journal has the following article on the general importance of vaccination. As the small pox is so evidently extending into the interior all should follow its counsel:

In a village it may be possible to prevent the extension of variolous diseases by isolation. Reports to the Health Office and the yellow flag, and transportation to the hospital amount to little or nothing. There is but one preventive—vaccination. Yellow flags might do some good if put up at all the street corners permiscuously. They would then be a constant reminder of the duty of vaccination. At present the idea of yellow flags and the pest house relieves the public mind to some extent of apprehension. If people see no yellow flag within half a mile of their residence they feel safe. But the danger is in the street, it is everywhere. The friend you shake hands with may have small pox without knowing it. Every day men come to the doctor's office to inquire what ails them with the eruption on their faces. They are thunderstruck to be told they have small pox. They have shaken hands with scores of people on their way to the office. Your child at school may have been sitting all day by the side of a schoolmate as unsuspecting as himself from whose body the vaporous affection emanates. Many persons have the disease in so mild a form as not to discover it until it is passing away—their daily avocation meantime not interrupted, and bringing them in contact with hundreds of persons. There is but one preventive, and that by universal consent is effectual. There is no excuse for neglect. Physicians very generally will vaccinate the poor without charge.

Democrats of sagacity begin to perceive that the greenback issue is a losing one for them. Hence the indications in different quarters of a disposition to back out from it. The truth is the greenback theory, as propounded by Pendleton, and hastily adopted by the party, is a delusion from the beginning to end. It will not stand the light elicited by discussion. The people understood that it means ruinous inflation—an aggravation, to an almost indefinite extent, of the evils already felt and always incident to a depreciated paper currency, leading directly and inevitably to repudiation and irretrievable loss. The Democrats will not be permitted to back out. To this ruinous doctrine they are committed. It is in their platform. It has been proclaimed from the house-tops

Republican Achievements and Ideas.

[From the S. F. Bulletin.]

The New York World attributes the present success of the Union Republican party to the popularity of General Grant, forgetting that Grant derives his popularity from the fidelity and success with which he has championed Republican ideas. If the party which nominated him had no other merit than the collected prestige of a single individual, it could not obtain the support it receives from the thinking men of the country; it could not enlist the sympathies of the advocates of liberal principles and free institutions throughout the world. The claim of the Union Republican party to support lies in its fidelity to the traditions and instincts of the Republic. It is the party of American ideas and progressive measures, and its good actions so far exceed its faults and mistakes that it retains the confidence of the country. Look at what it has done in eight years. It has saved the Union which a miscalled Democracy tried to destroy. It has freed four millions of people who were held as chattels and cleansed the escutcheon of a free country of a foul reproach. It has increased the prestige and influence of the country abroad. It has made a nation out of a congeries of States. It has made the name of American respected in all parts of the world as it never was before. It has given vitality and [illegible] citizenship. It has fixed in the organic law a guarantee, or equal privileges and [illegible] ties in all parts of the Union. It has secured by treaties with Germany and Great Britain full protection of the rights of naturalized citizens—an object which had cost the nation a war with England and which 50 years of previous diplomacy had failed to secure. It has caused the construction of the Pacific railroad and Overland telegraph, which pro-slavery Democracy refused to assist. It has enacted the law that gives to every head of a family 160 acres of land without [illegible] on the sole condition of [illegible] ment. It has initiated the policy of [illegible] land grants to schools of [illegible] and the mechanic arts. It has laid the [illegible] for a national system of [illegible] and educational statistics. It has [illegible] communication between California and [illegible]. It has extended our territory on the [illegible] Coast and made probable the ultimate [illegible]ation of British Columbia. It has [illegible] postage and introduced the [illegible] and money order system. It has [illegible] these postal improvements to the [illegible] mails, and greatly facilitated [illegible] correspondence. It has laid the foundation for a safe banking system and a uniform currency. It has [illegible] the diplomacy of the great powers in [illegible] to [illegible] gained for American enterprise [illegible] ages in that country. It has [illegible] ted the diplomacy of the [illegible] all previous experience. It has in all [illegible] other ways, increased the power and glory of the nation, and put it in the [illegible] to obtain a pitch of prosperity and influence never before possible. It has thus made itself the historical party of the United States, the party of American [illegible], the party of the people. Grant will be elected President because he is its leader and representative, and because the body of American [illegible] prefer to trust the Government in the hands that have saved and [illegible] it, [illegible] in those of the [illegible] who [illegible] and would have [illegible] it, and [illegible] purpose to [illegible] with its [illegible]

A Calumniator Set in a Pillory

The editor of the Herald stung with the rebuke which his lies about General Grant have met in the dispatch from General Ingalls which we published two days ago brazenly pronounces that dispatch a manifest forgery. As we purpose to skin Beriah Brown [illegible] and to do it in such a manner that he will remember it we shall prepare the way for making the job a thorough one by first giving his remarks on the subject entire:

> In view of the facts within our knowledge this dispatch bears all the internal evidence of forgery. In the first place the General Ingalls known to the people of Oregon, and the only "Brevet Major General" of that name, is Rufus W. Ingalls. The General is too systematic to sign any paper for public use omitting an important initial in his name while giving his honorary title in full. This of itself is sufficient to stamp this document as spurious, but it is not all the evidence. Our personal acquaintance with General Ingalls does not amount to a great degree of intimacy, but it is sufficient to impress us with the belief that he is a gentleman, and that in consequence, if we had misrepresented him his communication would have been addressed to us and not to the OREGONIAN first. We have the most indubitable proofs that General Ingalls is not in sympathy with the Radicals, and if he supports Grant for President it is with the full conviction that he will not carry out the Radical policy, but we do not believe that he would support him by telegraphing what he knows to be false. We are certain that Rufus W. Ingalls never wrote or dictated the sentence endorsing Grant as a man "of irreproachable moral habits, the truest of friends and greatest of living men;" for no man knows better than Gen. Ingalls himself the utter falsity of that statement, unless he regards habitual beastly intoxication as an "irreproachable moral habit," and the violation of personal pledges as a moral virtue. We will not, however, do the indignity to Gen. Ingall's character as a gentleman or man of honor, by supposing that he ever saw or heard of this communication, bearing a name similar to his own. It comes from a source notorious for falsehood and forgery, and is invented on the eve of the election in the hope that it might affect some of General Ingall's numerous friends in this State. The forgery is too transparent to deceive any discriminating judgment.

The insinuation here is that the dispatch was "forged" in the OREGONIAN office. The following will be a sufficient reply on this point:

> I certify that the following is a perfectly correct copy of a telegraphic dispatch which was received at his office on Saturday last, signed "Rufus Ingalls, Brevet Major General," and addressed to the editor of the OREGONIAN; that the said dispatch was transmitted over the line in the regular way of business, and that the charges in full were paid by the sender in New York:
> NEW YORK, Oct. 23, 1868.
> EDITOR OREGONIAN:
> To correct false statements I wish to say to those who have known me in Oregon that I am most positively in favor of General Grant. I know him to be a pure patriot, a true man, of moral habits, the truest of friends and the best and greatest of living men. He has saved our country once; should he be elected President, peace and prosperity would be secured.
> RUFUS INGALLS,
> Brevet Major General.
> Agent Western Union Tel. Co.
> Portland, Oct. 27, 1868.

So much for this; let us now examine the "internal evidence" on which the editor of the Herald pronounces the dispatch a "forgery."

He says that "in the first place, the Gen Ingalls known to the people of Oregon, and the only 'Brevet Major General' of that name is Rufus W. Ingalls. The General is too systematic to sign any paper for public use omitting an important initial in his name while giving his honorary title in full. This of itself is sufficient to stamp this document as spurious." Now Beriah Brown is the only person who ever discovered that there is any such initial as "W" in General Ingalls name. His name is invariably given as Rufus Ingalls in the Army Register. He does not claim the initial "W" as a part of his name, and in signing his name never uses that initial. No letter or dispatch can be produced in which he has written the letter "W" as a part of his signature. The public records of the country abound with letters and dispatches written by him in the course of business during the war, and as a specimen of his method of signing his name we quote the following from McClellan's Army of the Potomac, page 223:

> HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC,
> CAMP NEAR KNOXVILLE, MARYLAND,
> Oct 9th 1862.
> You did right in sending clothing to Harper's Ferry. You will not be able to send too much or too quickly. We want blankets, shoes, canteens, &c., very much.
> RUFUS INGALLS,
> Lieutenant Colonel and Aide de Camp.
> COL. C. G. SAWTELLE,
> Depot Quartermaster, Washington.

On the same page and the following one are several other dispatches signed "Rufus Ingalls," without the "W" which Beriah Brown has given him. The General always calls himself "Rufus Ingalls" for the good and substantial reason that that is his name.

The editor of the Herald says, "Our personal acquaintance with General Ingalls does not amount to a great degree of intimacy." There was no occasion for Beriah Brown to say this, since it is evident he does not even know the General's name. In view of the facts we have stated, who is it, we ask, who has committed forgery? Who, but the individual who has "forged" the "W" and thrust it in the middle of General Ingalls signature?

It is a constant habit with Beriah Brown to pretend to a great knowledge of men of distinction throughout the country. He is constantly exhibiting himself in the ridiculous and despicable character of a toady and a sycophant, and of course is heartily despised by those about whom he is fawning. He is not intimate with Ingalls but he wishes it understood by this remark that he is on terms of intimacy with other men of exalted station. By the common consent of mankind there is no more contemptible character than he who attempts to bolster up a reputation by boasting of his intimacy with those whose society he notoriously cannot reach. Says this self complacent sycophant: "If we had misrepresented him (Gen Ingalls) his communication would have been addressed to us and not to the OREGONIAN first." Gen Ingalls would not condescend to directly notice the sneaking calumniator who had been misrepresenting him; his object was simply to correct false statements which had been put in circulation by this unscrupulous liar and so disabuse the public mind of the impression that Gen. Ingalls regarded General Grant unfit for the Presidency. Says the Herald further: "We are certain that Rufus W. Ingalls never wrote or dictated the sentence endorsing Grant as a man 'of irreproachable moral habits, the truest of friends and the best and greatest of living men'; for no man knows better than General Ingalls the utter falsity of that statement." Certainly Rufus W. Ingalls never wrote this sentence, but Rufus Ingalls did, and if it were not absurd to suppose that the editor of the Herald could obtain a conference with gentlemen we would refer him to persons in this city who have letters from General Ingalls containing similar declarations.

We are free to say that we do not regard it of much importance whether Gen. Ingalls supports Gen Grant or not. He would probably have supported Gen. Hancock, Gen. Dix or any other War Democrat had such person received the nomination, but there never has been a time when he would have supported such a rebel sympathizer as Seymour against Grant. Mr. Lloyd Brooke of this city, an earnest Democrat who knows Gen. Ingalls as well as any man knows him, has many letters from him, (not Rufus W. Ingalls) written since the New York Convention was held, in which he constantly declares that he will support Grant. But as we said before it is a small matter whether he supports Grant or not. He is quite at liberty to exercise his own judgment about that. The point to his dispatch which the Herald pronounces a forgery is its emphatic contradiction of the lies which Beriah Brown and others have been circulating in Oregon, relative to Gen Grant. They have been using Ingalls name to support their assertion that Grant is "treacherous," "a sot," "incapable of friendship or gratitude," and possessing no capacity whatever for the high office for which he is a candidate. Ingalls replies by declaring that Grant is a man "of irreproachable moral habits, the truest of friends and the best and greatest of living men." This is the testimony of the witness whom Grant's defamers have called upon the stand. No wonder the evidence does not please them. And it is perfectly in keeping with their character to turn about now and attempt to impeach the testimony of their own witness. No doubt Gen. Ingalls will hereafter be one of the objects of Beriah Brown's defamation.

The course of the editor of the Herald in relation to this matter very well illustrates his general character. He stands before the community a convicted liar, an arrant knave and a contemptible sycophant; one who does not hesitate to use the names of others to support his falsehoods, and when he finds his lies hurled back in his teeth, clumsily fabricates new falsehoods to use as a temporary expedient to divert public attention; one who feeds on calumny and is never satisfied, and whose single purpose in life is to calumniate and malign those whom his demon instincts teach him to hate. If ever the words which Margaret spoke to Richard should be addressed to any one it would surely be admissible to address them to this creature:

Hie thee to hell for shame and quit the world,
Thou cacodemon! There thy kingdom is.

Begging pardon of our readers for trespassing so far upon their time and begging pardon further for the necessity which has compelled us to talk so plainly, we quit this scurvy subject.

Says the Marysville (Cal.) Appeal: "Horace A. Higley, Surveyor General of this State, at the outbreak of the rebellion, left soon afterward and entered the service of the Confederacy, and was one of the prisoners captured with Morgan's guerrillas in Ohio. But he has recently returned to this State and is now in the office of the Surveyor General, as Deputy. So he is rewarded for his former perjury and his efforts to destroy the Government he had sworn to support." Such is Democracy.

In 1860 Lincoln's cause was not allowed a hearing in the South. Now, the Republican party has a hearing there, and with the votes of loyal blacks to match the votes of rebel whites, and with the loyal white men of that section standing firm against the threatened revolution, Grant and Colfax will probably carry a majority of the electoral votes of the Southern States. Suppose black men could vote in Oregon, would not their votes be quite good enough to pit against Price's rebels?

We learn that the enlightened Democracy of Clackamas county are swearing that it's all a lie about the Republicans winning the late elections, and that they profess to have intelligence that Ohio and Pennsylvania have given large Ku Klux majorities. The local leaders in the county are keeping up the spirits of the faithful by these representations. Next thing we hear they'll be swearing that it's all a lie about Lee having surrendered.

The House of Representatives at the State Capital, which is now "a fragmentary body hanging on the verge of the Government," notifies the Governor that it will meet and adjourn until he orders a special election to fill the vacancies. All right. Let the members meet and adjourn from day to day till after the election in 1870. It won't cost the State anything. The members can pawn their carpet bags to the Salem hotel keepers for their board.

Last week when the first reports of the West Virginia election gave information that the Democrats claimed the State, we predicted that it would be found that the Republicans had carried it. This prediction is confirmed. The State gives over 4,000 Republican majority. There can hardly be a doubt but every State which went for Lincoln in 1864 will go for Grant.

A. P. Dudley, a California Democrat who has come out for Grant, said in a recent speech at Sacramento that, after a careful canvass, and with the experience of 19 years' stumping in California staring him in the face, he would prophesy that California will give Grant and Colfax 1[illegible] majority.

Speaker Colfax at a late meeting in Indiana, said that his own election was a foregone conclusion, and that the next President would prevent all such outrages as that at Camilla, where the red handed rebels shot down loyal men in cold blood for no other offense than holding a public meeting to advocate the election of Grant.

The telegraph told us there were 50,000 people in the New York Seymour procession and 500,000 looking on. The New York Herald, which magnifies this matter in its issue of October 6th gives an account of the meeting in two pages of description and gives the procession at 40,000.

The Walla Walla Statesman says the "Radicals have carried Ohio and Pennsylvania by greatly reduced majorities." Inasmuch as these States went Democratic a year ago and now give [illegible]0,000 Republican majority, the "reduction" is not quite apparent.

A horse thief named Patrick Glaney was killed at Walla Walla a few days ago by M. J. Smith the owner of the horse, and Deputy Sheriff Goldstein. He had been arrested, was shot while trying to make his escape.

A large number of Swiss citizens in San Francisco publish a card in the Times in which they state that there are but twenty of their countrymen in that city who are Democrats.

A Sudden Check

The resignation and withdrawal of the Republican members of the House has put a sudden and effectual check upon the career of Democratic outrage and lawlessness in the Legislature. Party aggrandizement has been made the sole business of the session by the Democratic majority. To carry out their programme they have run rough-shod over the Constitution and laws, and have sacrificed usage, courtesy and decency to the accomplishment of their one purpose. To complete what they had taken in hand they prolonged the session several days beyond the usual time when there was not the smallest necessity for such a proceeding, and steadily and persistently refused to pass the appropriation bill, the only measure which remained to be acted upon. They spent several days in the vain attempt to [illegible] and kept back the appropriation bill as a device to hold a quorum at the Capital, hoping that a portion of the Republican members would become wearied and disgusted with the length and tediousness of proceedings at the session and quietly go home, leaving the Democrats two-thirds in both Houses, when they could go through the farce of recounting the vote for Governor two years ago, oust Gov. Woods and install Kelly, enact all the partisan legislation they wanted and re-district the State, gerrymandering it in such a manner as to make their power in the Legislature secure for years to come. This, as we learn, was the programme. It has been defeated by the prompt action of the Republican members of the House. There was no occasion for prolonging the session beyond last Saturday, as the usual term of forty days was then expired, and no further legislation was wanted except the appropriation bill. Democratic smartness has been brought to grief in a very summary manner. In addition to their other sins during the session the Democratic majority must bear the blame of refusing to make appropriations for the public services during the next two years. Whatever inconvenience and additional expense result from a lack of funds will be taxed up by the people against the unscrupulous majority in the Legislature who have been endeavoring to make everything subserve the ends of party.

STATE ITEMS

By the wreck of the bark D. M. Hall at the entrance of Coos Bay on the 2d inst., the steward and one seaman were lost.

On the last trip of the steamer Pacific to the Umpqua, she put a seaman ashore who was sick with the small pox. The Umpqua people sent him down to Coos Bay.

A fine schooner of 150 tons was launched at Marshfield, Coos Bay by J. H. Howlett, on the 17th inst. The keel is laid for another schooner at the same place.

Says the La Grande Times: We are afraid for that Grand Barbecue to come off here on Saturday next. Don't you Democrats rather wish you had been one day later with your posters? Suppose you turn over your powder, sheep, pigs and things to us, who can rejoice with joy almost unspeakable.

Political Brevities

A vote was taken in the Senior Class in Yale College, the other day, with the following result: First Division, Seymour, 11, Grant, 47. Second Division, Seymour, 13, Grant, 48. Total, Grant, 96, Seymour, 24.

The Lafayette, (Ind.) Courier says of a Democratic procession in that city: "The Democratic torchlight last night was immense—positively huge. It numbered by actual count, over two hundred persons and was three hours in passing a corner grocery. Some did not get by at all."

The Nashville Republican, of the 2d inst. has trustworthy information from East Tennessee that thousands of men who voted for Etheridge on account of the bugaboo of "negro equality," will now go for Grant and Colfax. They have got their eyes open to the fact that the cry about negro equality is all "bosh."

The Columbus (Ohio) Statesman says: "A slightly inebriated Hibernian marched majestically up to the West Front with Frank Blair, yesterday, shouting 'Up with the white man! We'll tramp the naygur under our feet!' and when Blair, in the course of his remarks, exclaimed, 'Where are the revolutionists?' this impudent member of the faithful flock yelled out, 'Here we are, Ginerał!'"

The New York Times, of Sunday, says there never was such enthusiasm and earnest activity among the German population of that city in favor of the Republican cause since the memorable Fremont campaign of 1856. The Germans thoroughly understand the political meaning of the Democratic threat, "the war is a failure," and they will present an unbroken front against the reactionary attack of the Democratic Bourbons. The German Grant and Colfax Club, under the leadership of Dr. Fred Schuetz, is the most perfect and successful campaign organization ever known in that city. Converts from the Democratic ranks are constantly enlisting under the Republican banner. Branch organizations exist all over the city, and the entire membership numbers over 4,000.

PUGET SOUND

[From the Olympia Transcript.]

We are informed that the Puget Mill Company at Teekalet, will soon make additional improvements to their mills, so as to compete successfully with all others in the business. Being now among the largest manufacturers of lumber on the Sound, turning it out in unlimited quantities, by which a fleet of vessels are supplied to carry it to every quarter of the globe, the improvements in this business are such as to require an outlay of thousands in its manufacture.

So thick has been the weather for two months, that the vessels have been unable to get in or out of the Sound with any expedition. At all the mills, lumber is accumulating in large quantities. At Teekalet the mills will soon have to stop if it is not taken away as it is now piled up on the wharves forty feet high.

There is not a public bar where intoxicating liquors are sold on the stage road between Olympia and the Columbia river, a distance of over 60 miles. We do not believe there is another road of equal length with as much settlement through which it passes, and having the same amount of travel in the United States, of which the same can be said.

Messrs. Thompson & Meade, living on the Puyallup bottom in Pierce county, of whose culture of hops a correspondent of ours gave a description some weeks ago, have raised this year about 3,000 pounds, a large share of which was engaged early in the season, by the brewers, at fifty cents per pound. The hops raised on Puyallup are said to be the best for beer of any to be procured on the coast.

A woolen mill is being erected near Steilacoom which will be in operation next spring.

NIGHT SCHOOL.—Mr. Fitzgerald has opened a Night School in the schoolhouse (up stairs) near the Catholic Church. Terms for Reading, Writing, Arithmetic and English Grammar $2 50 per month. For Book keeping, Geometry and Algebra, $5 per month. School opens at 7 P. M. and closes at 9 P. M.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Oregon Legislature.

SALEM, Oct 27.—In the Senate this morning, a committee was appointed to wait on the Governor to ascertain what his intentions were in relation to returning the bill to provide for the erection of an Insane Asylum. After being absent some time, the committee returned and reported that the Governor would send in a written communication on the subject.

The bill to appropriate funds for the construction of a canal from Tualatin river to Sucker Lake was laid on table.

The bill to provide board for visiting physicians for the Insane Asylum passed.

The House was requested by message to return the bill relating to the distribution of the school funds in Grant county, to which the House replied that no quorum was present, and it could not transact business.

In the House Chapman offered a resolution which was adopted informing the Governor that by the resignations of members the House was left with no quorum and that the Legislature would meet and adjourn from time to time until a special election should be held to fill vacancies. The Governor will reply by message this evening. The resigned members are mostly here and will remain till a boat to-morrow.

There is less excitement to day than yesterday and men are taking more calm and rational views of the situation. Whitten will hold his seat. The fact that if all the members of the House were here there would be no quorum has not lessened the abandonment of all purpose of counting for absent members.

PRIZE MONEY paid all persons attached to vessels or squadrons which captured Prizes during the late War. The undersigned has a PRIZE LIST.

Several SPOLIATION CLAIMS were referred, last Session of Congress to the Committee on Claims in the Senate, with prospects of payment. More such are desired by the undersigned.

PENSIONS are increased under recent Act of Congress (governed by wound or disability) to $15, $20 and $25 per month, and paid in case of death of soldier, to mother, father, brother or sister—the arrears back to time of discharge or death of soldier, to be paid by Pension Agent here and not by Third Auditor as formerly. Heirs of deceased soldiers entitled to a pension had better apply to the undersigned, who gives gratuitous information to all desiring it.

BOUNTIES obtained when Discharge is lost as well as with the discharge.

The Oregon, Washington and California Indian War Debts are being paid off gradually. Court.—As a general thing but little of interest to the outside world is transacted in this Court and consequently we have not seen fit to keep our readers posted in regard to the instances where the people generally of people in Portland are daily before his Honor and are tried for petty offenses. In some the accused are of such respectability that they ask as a favor that the proceedings be withheld, and we are always inclined to grant it. Occasionally some very amusing cases. Yesterday Emily Morris charged Mr with disturbance of the peace and quiet of the neighborhood. She felt very much aggrieved that his name should be called in question by anybody and should testify the matter with the court, the court exercising its discretion found that the charge against Mr Bentley of the charge and sent him to the city Jail among the rats for Mr Wall was up again, having just served a term of twenty days and had it not got drunk the court regretted that a long term had apparently done Mr Wall but little good and expressed a consignment would have a better effect. He got a shorter period this time only It might be observed that Mr Wall seemed with the decision in his case and in the court, both in regard to the failure of good previous imprisonment and the hope that would be more refreshing to his taste. Walton for making night hideous among the rats

—Mr Bertrand charged with the A. Maier, on the 25th was arraigned before yesterday. The examination was set for tomorrow at nine o clock in the forenoon ment is that the deceased owed him a y, the earnings of his whole life time no chance of recovering by law as the the benefit of the bankrupt act since He further stated that on the morning he went to deceased and told him he relinquish all demands against him wanted to go to San Francisco This insulting language as the prisoner that the act was done in self defense as struck him and attempted to draw a fatal shot was fired. These statements, be weighed with care before any conclusion upon them It might have been better were not published at the present but only been made public to some extent we readers

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Man wants a Tonic—no uncommon want—
And every year and month brings forth a new one
Which, after cramming the gazettes with cant
The age discovers to be not the true one
Of such as these let their concoctors vaunt,
I'll sing the BITTERS that have credit due won—
The world's great Tonic, which no skill can better—
I mean the matchless BITTERS of HOSTETTER,

Doctors were living long before old Galen
And since excelling learned grave and sage;
But the stomachics they were found to fail in
Success came not until this later age,
Now is the era sick folks are made well in
And dread dyspepsia driven from the stage,
Agues remittents head aches—real head splitters—
Vanish like smoke before HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

Herbs, barks and roots compose the rare infusion
No mineral poison mars their juices pure
And Rye's mild essence holds them in solution,
The taste is pleasant, the effect is sure
Ne'er have the Bitters yet proved a delusion;
Try them in time, and health and strength secure
The dragon slayer figures on the label,
And they, like him, to save the weak are able.

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which here and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some men and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his work, seek to the public, palming upon them their inferior for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned, and put on their guard against this practice

Alexander Long on the Intrigue of Seymour's Nomination

Mr Long is of Cincinnati and communicated the following to a paper in that city

The scheme for nominating Governor Seymour was concocted at Delmonico's on Wednesday night and fully agreed upon Thursday morning at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. The parties to it were Wash McLean Geo E Pugh Allen G Thurman George W Cook George W Morgan Hugh J Jewett and Joseph C Butler of Ohio and Samuel J Tilden Ben Wood, Peter Sweeny, and Mr Barlow of New York

Neither Wood Sweeny nor Barlow were delegates and we have the assurance of one of the Ohio delegates Joseph C Butler for saying that only four members of the New York delegation including Samuel J Tilden knew anything about what was to be done until Seymour's name was sprung upon the Convention by McCook. They were intentionally kept in ignorance by Tilden and his three associates in the scheme, lest they knowing what was intended, should have presented the name of Chief Justice Chase who was the choice of the New York delegation

Vallandigham was not let into the secret until Thursday morning, and the balance of the Ohio delegation were kept in ignorance of the plans of McLean and the other seven until after the twenty first ballot on which they divided the vote between Hancock and English, and after which they retired for consultation, when McCook, McLean and others insisted upon casting the next ballot unanimously for Gov. Seymour, as the last and only hope of preventing the nomination of Mr Chase whose name, they insisted would be formally presented if further balloting was had and to this the delegation assented

In conversation with a prominent New York politician Governor Seymour said that under no circumstances whatever could he consent to become a candidate—said he was weighed down with family griefs and domestic troubles—that in a few weeks he expected to see his brother consigned to a lunatic asylum, and that the condition of his own health was such as to forbid his becoming a candidate—said he could not get elected, and even if he could he would be utterly powerless in the White House—his hands would be tied by the Senate—he would be unable to secure even the confirmation of a Cabinet of his choice, and to hold the same relation before the country to the Senate, whatever might be the complexion of the House, that was sustained by Johnson and be perplexed, worried and abused in the same manner, would put him in his grave in less than a year from the time he assumed such a position—while, said he, with Mr Chase it would be altogether different—his election would divide the Senate, and the Conservative Republicans who would identify themselves with the administration, united with the Democrats, would give us a majority, while he said he firmly believed the nomination of the Chief Justice by the Convention would disintegrate the Republican party, secure his election beyond a doubt, and give us a majority of the Forty first Congress

He spoke in favor of Mr Chase's nomination in the New York delegation, on Thursday morning, after which a vote was taken when thirty seven of the delegates expressed their preference for the Chief Justice, and a majority was to cast a vote as a unit.

On his way to the Convention, and in less than two hours before he was nominated, he read to Dr. Thos. Cottman, of New York, an elaborately prepared speech, which he intended to make on seconding the nomination of the Chief Justice on behalf of New York, he expecting, as did the Convention, that Mr Chase would be nominated that morning

He had made arrangements with Geo Prince of Missouri, to occupy the chair, that he might speak from the floor, and had this speech in his pocket at the time he was nominated. His speech to the Convention declining the nomination, "Your candidate I cannot be," was regarded, and understood by all who heard it, as a positive declaration and denial of the right of the convention to use his name, and would have so ended, had it not been for the men who is impressed with the belief that the world would cease to revolve on its axis if he did not make a speech on all occasions when he has permission to be heard.

Mr. Vallandigham is entitled to all the honor that attaches to the nomination of Horatio Seymour. Mr. Tilden, it seems, was the first to look after the Governor in the confusion that followed and found him in the ante room adjoining the stage, suffused in tears, and immediately beat a hasty retreat from the scene of his achievements, and as he led the Governor down the stairway, with the tears yet in his eyes, he met his old friend Peter Harvey, of Boston, one of the Vice Presidents of the Convention, when he seized him by the hand and exclaimed, "Pity me, Harvey, pity me."

The artful Tilden, knowing full well the importance of getting him out of the reach of his true friends until after the Convention had separated, hurried him away and kept him in a secluded part of the city some four hours before his friends knew where to find him. Tilden is a candidate for the United States Senate, and he thinks that with Seymour as candidate for President the Democrats can carry both branches of the New York Legislature, and hence he united with the leaders in Ohio, and has thus far carried his point successfully.

CHEAP TITLES.—California can beat any place on the habitable globe by way of conferring cheap titles. A man serves the State in the capacity of a civil officer, and he is at once dubbed with a military title. For instance, read the rebel sheets and they will make a great flourish of General [illegible] speaking of their favorites, Wallace and Jo Hamilton. One of these men held the civil position of Attorney General under the old Know Nothing party, and the other [illegible] the same position to day under the [illegible] Democracy. One would suppose that each of these [illegible] had rebel Democrats had led a column in the midst of the most deadly strife—where bullets flew thick and fast—and had each a right to bear the title of military fame won by Lee, Beauregard and Johnston of the rebel army; and they luxuriate in the title of General! What folly! What arrogant assumption! So it is with a Justice of the Peace, who never read or saw a law book in his life, is dubbed with the title of Judge; as much so as one who has grown grey in the study of the law and has acquired the position of Judge of the Supreme Court. Chief Justice Chase and Squire or Justice of the Peace Jenkins rank all the same. Every other man you met with in early times was dubbed with a title from Major up to General. The chivalry started the practice and it has been followed up by the Democracy. You never read an account of one of their meetings but what the title of General Colonel, Major or Judge will be announced as speakers. A very cheap way of getting titles this.—Sac Record

DOOLITTLE.—Senator Doolittle, in his speech at Racine, Wisconsin, the other day, said that he was at Frankfort on the Maine in Germany, last year at this time. While there, our bonds bearing six per cent. sold at seventy three in gold, while the bonds of Brazil, bearing only four per cent, sold for more than ninety in gold. This fact he said, caused his cheek to burn with shame and mortification. Our credit was below that of Brazil.—Washington (D C) Intelligencer.

Senator Doolittle is a rampant Democrat—an apostate War Democrat. He pretends that his cheeks "burn with shame and mortification" because our credit is so low in Europe! He is a pretty specimen! It is enough to make the cheeks of every honest American "burn with shame and mortification" that such a creature has a place in our national councils. After getting the Republicans to elect him Senator in Congress, by pretending to be a Republican of the strictest sect, this peculiarly sensitive and shame faced gentleman has had the shamelessness to strike hands with the rebels and repudiators—with Hampton and Forrest, Vallandigham and Brick Pomeroy. He and they now propose to compel the holders of our six per cent. bonds to exchange them for paper bearing no interest, in order to enhance their value and bring them up to par! That is the way they propose to redeem the credit of the country!—Ohio State Journal.

THE JONAH.—Who or what is the Jonah that is about to sink the Democratic ship? The political sea on which she struggles is sorely troubled. There are breakers and rocks on every hand. She has struck half a dozen times within a few days. She is weak in all her knees and trembling from stem to stern and from keel to topmast and the next blow carries her to the bottom! What can be done to save her? Who has she on board as a [illegible] or passenger that has caused this terrible storm? Is it Seymour, or Blair, or both? Is it the platform or the rebels who made it? Is it the chieftains of the Ku Klux Klans who rule the roost or is it Grant who 's the matter? The Captain and officers are holding a consultation in the hope of discovering the Jonah, with the intention of throwing him overboard, but the debate will cause so much dissention that even after he is overboard there will be none to man and trim the ship and steer her through the foamy breakers which are just ahead! There is not the least hope of saving her.—Sac Bee

Christina Nilsson the young Swedish cantatrice who [illegible] divides the honors with Patti is of very humble descent and was born in a poor hut in the province of Smaland.

A distinguished Democrat of San Francisco says that all the native born citizens of his party could be hauled out of town on a one-horse wagon

Mr Zachariah Wilson Portland Oregon, writes,

It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself during the stormy ordeal of public experiments. Murray's Improved Magic Oil has stood the test of time and has not been found wanting. The astonishing efficacy that I experienced—its curing me of Chronic Rheumatism and Lumbago of long standing entitles Dr Murray's Premium Lung and Liver Balsam and Improved Magic Oil to a high rank in the list of remedies for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Earache, Distressing Pains etc.

John English of Howell Prairie Marion county Oregon writes:

I was taken with a severe attack of Rheumatism in my knee joints and extremities, [illegible] a severe cough for two months at the [illegible] I had [illegible] medicines [illegible]. Your Magic Oil and Balsam gave me instant relief and I was able to walk in four days without crutches. I have a [illegible] felt any [illegible] since. I have seen your family medicines used with excellent success. I have no hesitancy in saying it is the best preparation for family use ever tried for these complaints. I am now on my way to South America after residing in Oregon twenty years. I must [illegible] two dozen bottles of [illegible] Balsam and two dozens of your Magic Oil dollar bottles as I am sure they are the best remedies in Oregon and I would not be without them in my house and when this package of medicine is exhausted I will send to your office in Portland for a fresh supply J ENGLISH

Farmers of Oregon!

CASTONS'S X-L-SIOR

BROAD-CAST GRAIN-SOWER.

THIS VALUABLE LABOR-SAVING MACHINE which has already been adopted to nearly every Agricultural county in the State of California and in every county where it has been presented has been brought to Portland by

who holds the exclusive right to the same for the State of Oregon, and is now ready to accommodate the farmers of this State with machines, and to sell county rights to manufacture the same

This machine saves the entire cost and labor of sowing a field excepting the cost of a machine—the same team being used for sowing and harrowing as is used for harrowing alone; the farmer or his boy riding and driving his team, instead of walking and carrying his heavy sack, and then walking and dragging his grain in

The inventor of this valuable aid to farmers is a man of large experience in seeding machines and has happily succeeded in this invention in producing a machine which while it carries the farmer as if on a sulky sows wheat barley oats or peas with greater regularity than the same can be sown by hand and at the same time the harrow attached to it, immediately behind covers the grain and the labor is done. Any intelligent farmer who has ever carried a sack and sowed grain will readily see that the X-L-SIOR Grain Sower will save its entire cost in labor alone—to say nothing of its saving in seed—in sowing comparatively but few acres; and we have placed an improper estimate upon the enterprise of our Oregon farmers if this machine is not generally adopted in this State as it has already been in California and where the farmers write to the inventor respecting it after this manner

LINCOLN, (Placer Co) Sept 5 1868

MR H A CASTON—Dear Sir I have two complete machines (X-L-SIOR) which I challenge the State to beat for sowing grain. I have not as many fingers as the [illegible] but I do not want any [illegible] as I [illegible] better than they do. I have sowed and [illegible] them perfectly
F C PURINGTON

By addressing or calling upon Mr Brusie at C Hegkins corner of First and Morrison streets in this city machines or County Rights to manufacture and sell the machines can be purchased at reasonable rates

EXTINGUISHER

SELF-ACTING FIRE ENGINE!

THIS INVENTION HAS FOR ITS OBJECT THE extinguishing of Fires in a more instantaneous manner than has hitherto been discovered

The advantages to be derived from the use of the EXTINGUISHER are as follows

Every fire begins on a small scale, and its rapid and uncontrollable increase is owing to the fact that at the time of its commencement (when every moment's delay in checking it is of the utmost importance) no means are ready at hand

The EXTINGUISHER is the only Engine that fills this requirement

It is always ready for use, though standing unused for years

It puts out Fires instantly

It saves the great deluge of water now used for this purpose

It is as effective in the hands of a Boy as the most experienced Fireman

It is portable, and as easily handled as a bucket of water

It possesses within itself the power of a force pump and as effective as a Steam Engine

It is the only known invention that will put out Fires from Kerosene Tar Naphthaline, and combustible materials now in common use

PRICE—No 1, $50; No 2, $55; No 3, $60

REPUBLICAN PRINCIPLES

THE IRISH REPUBLIC NEWSPAPER PUBlished in New York City is devoted to the promulgation of the principles of the Republican party. It is now engaged in a bitter and most arduous struggle with all the reactionary elements which have so long controlled the votes of adopted citizens of Irish birth. Its circulation and influence are being widely extended but as in all such enterprises the results are all consumed in the efforts at maintaining and extending that influence. The paper is a large and handsome Weekly published at a subscription price of five dollars per annum. We propose to devote our columns to the great work of the pending campaign. We will send the Irish Republic for four months for one dollar in packages of ten and upwards

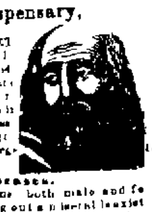
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,



616 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency etc. Skin Diseases of years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of [illegible] indulgence or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation they linger until death loses the scene. Yet parents, guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private disease his especial study 16 years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing the cure of curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emission is the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision, blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society loss of memory, hectic flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use. For Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who with bogus sworn to certificates impose the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths shoe makers newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates pretended patient's letters etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure
